The Wills and Probate Team

James Thomas, a partner in the practice, qualified as a solicitor in 1979. James is a member of the Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners (STEP). James has particular expertise in tax planning and dealing with the administration of complex trusts and estates.

Sarah Littlewood, qualified as a solicitor in 2005, she joined the practice from a firm in Wakefield where she gained valuable experience in their Wills and Probate Department.

Sarah has a particular interest in estate administration and cases involving the Court of Protection. Sarah is currently studying for the Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners diploma.

Belinda Fox, (a former senior partner) is now a consultant with the firm. Belinda specialises in the administration of trusts and estates and all aspects of inheritance tax planning.

Samantha Barron, is a solicitor at the firm. Samantha assists James, Belinda and Sarah in drafting Wills and administering estates.

Together they provide expertise in assisting clients in dealing with the all issues involved with this area of the law.
